IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. Section 7058.7 of the Business and Professions Code reads in part:
 - "(a) No contractor shall engage in a removal or remedial action, as defined in subdivision (d), unless the qualifier for the license has passed an approved hazardous substance certification examination...
 - (d) For purposes of this section "removal or remedial action" has the same meaning as found in Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, if the action requires the contractor to dig into the surface of the earth and remove the dug material and the action is at a site listed pursuant to Section 25356 of the Health and Safety Code or any other site listed as a hazardous waste site by the Department of Toxic Substances Control or a site listed on the National Priorities list compiled pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, (42 U.S.C. Sect. 9601 et seq.). "Removal or remedial action" does not include asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code, or work related to a hazardous substance spill on a highway.
 - (e)(1) A contractor shall not install or remove an underground storage tank, unless the contractor has passed the hazardous substance certification examination developed pursuant to this section.
 - (2) A contractor who is not certified may bid on or contract for the installation or removal of an underground tank, as long as the work is performed by a contractor who is certified pursuant to this section.
 - (3) For purposes of this subdivision, "underground storage tank" has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (x) of Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code".

NOTICE TO APPLICANT

The information in this application is required under Section 20 and Article 5, Chapter 9, Division 3 (commencing with Section 7065) of the Business and Professions Code and Board Rule 816 (California Code of Regulations). All items of information requested are mandatory. Failure to provide any of the required information may result in the application being returned for correction. The information provided will be used to determine eligibility for licensure. The official responsible for the maintenance of this information is the Registrar of Contractors, Contractors State License Board. The information may be transferred to other state or other governmental agencies.

Individuals have the right to review the files on records maintained on them by the agency, unless the records are identified as confidential information and exempted by Section 1798.3 of the Information Practices Act.

Upon approval of an application which meets all conditions as determined by the Registrar of Contractors, the name of the applicant will be placed on the posting list. The posting list is available for public inspection at the Headquarters Office of the Contractors State License Board. This notice is furnished to applicants pursuant to Section 1798.17 of the Civil Code.

Disclosure of your social security number (SSN) or Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) is mandatory (if the licensed entity is a corporation, you are not required to provide a SSN). Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code and Public Law 94-455 (42 USCA 405 (c) (2) (C)) authorize collection of your SSN or EIN. Your SSN or EIN will be used exclusively for tax enforcement purposes, for purposes of compliance with any judgment or order for family support in accordance with Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or for verification of licensure or examination status by a licensing or examination entity which utilizes a national examination and where licensure is reciprocal with the requesting state. The CLSB is prohibited from processing your application if you fail to disclose your SSN or EIN. In addition, the CSLB shall report to the Franchise Tax Board those applicants failing to disclose the information requested. The Franchise Tax Board may assess a $100.00 penalty against you.

EXAMINATIONS

You may be scheduled for the examination as soon as 15 days from the acceptance of this application. A study guide for the examination is available from the Contractors State License Board.

FAMILY SUPPORT

Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code authorizes district attorneys to notify the State Department of Social Services when there is noncompliance with a family support order or judgment issued by a court of this state. The code requires the State Department of Social Services to compile this information and distribute it to the specified state agencies (which includes the CLSB). The licensing agencies may be precluded from issuing a license, certificate, or registration to a person on the list until the person obtains a release from the district attorney.
